

Hospice FAQs

Am I eligible for hospice care?

If you have a life-limiting illness and life expectancy of six months or less, as diagnosed by a primary-care physician, you may be eligible for hospice care.

Can I receive hospice care at home?

Yes. Whether you live at your family home, in an assisted living community, or in a skilled-care community, our team will come to you.

When can I be admitted to hospice?

Once we receive your physician's order, we can admit you any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. We also provide informational visits at any time.

How often will my hospice team visit?

Your hospice nurse will visit regularly, and other team members will visit according to your needs and preferences. Our nurses are on call to answer questions and visit 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Does insurance cover hospice care?

Hospice care is usually covered by Medicare, Medicaid, Veterans Affairs (VA) benefits, and most private insurance policies. At Vivie, no one is denied hospice care due to lack of coverage.

Do I have to buy equipment or supplies?

No, you don't have to pay for any medications, equipment, or supplies. Our team will arrange for any items you need and the costs will be covered for you.
